

Mind Map

Core Nodes

The system connects users, data, prediction, dashboard, alerts, reports, and administration.

- Each module plays a role in providing an end-to-end flood monitoring experience.

Brief Explanation

The mind map shows how the project functions as one integrated solution from data entry to decision support.

- It highlights the relationship between model training and user-facing features.