

Work Breakdown Structure

Task Breakdown

The work is divided into UI development, backend logic, model training, database setup, and documentation.

- This helps organize responsibilities clearly.

Brief Explanation

The breakdown makes it easier to track project progress and avoid missing key features.

- It also supports better planning for future improvements.