

System Testing

End-to-End Validation

The complete application was checked from user login through prediction and reporting.

- The results show that the system behaves correctly in a real workflow.

Brief Explanation

System testing confirms that the completed project is ready for presentation and evaluation.

- It also highlights the quality of the user experience.