

API Documentation

Routes

The main routes include login, dashboard, prediction, reports, analytics, alerts, and profile.

- These endpoints support the web application workflow.

Brief Explanation

This document briefly describes the purpose of each route for developers and evaluators.

- It helps make the project easier to understand and extend.